STUDENT LIFE – HOUSING

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Student Residence

The Centennial College Residence is more than just a place to sleep. It's an opportunity to develop lifelong friendships and memories. It also allows you to get fully involved in college activities and to mature in a rich academic and social community. We strongly recommend that international students stay in our residence during the first year of study to help jump-start their Canadian living/learning experience.

Homestay

Coming to a new country can be exciting, but also intimidating. The Homestay program partners you with a family, which will help you to adjust to your new city by offering advice and information on getting around. You may choose to stay with the family for the duration of your study period, or just until you find your own apartment. While in homestay, you will also have the advantage of being in an environment in which English is the primary language. It will be as though you are taking an extra language class every day.

Off-Campus Housing

The Centennial College Student Association Inc. (CCSAI) manages an off-campus housing service through a company called Places4Students Inc. The company ensures that finding a home is headache free through its free-to-search database, which allows students to see the property before deciding to contact the landlord.
